Up for an Extra Challenge? We're also recruiting Ride Leader Interns and support team drivers.

For each of the two 2009 routes Global AFC is looking for outstanding Ride Leaders (3), drivers (1+) and support team members to assist in organizing and running Riding to Break the Cycle '09. Ride Leaders may cycle or act solely as support and are responsible for all aspects of planning and managing the tour, with strong support from the organizing committee and head office at home.

Ride Leaders must be between the ages of 18-30 and will work with the organizing committee in the months leading up to the ride to recruit and guide riders, plan logistics, and lead the tour. Support team members or drivers simply must be over 18 years of age – mom's are encouraged ☺

This is a life changing opportunity to be an integral part of the '09 tour while developing your leadership skills and resume – if you think this sounds like the kind of challenge you're looking for, we can't wait to hear from you.

Email info@globalafc.org further information on Ride Leader applications and to talk to former ride leaders about the experience!

A. FUNDRAISING REQUIREMENTS

Each rider will fundraise $3,000 by the start of the trip.

Riders will be able to join the Riding to Break the Cycle tour only after Global Agents for Change has received the entire $3000. This is entirely feasible and we will help you every step of the way!

IMPORTANT - To ensure that riders do not fall behind in fundraising efforts, Global Agents for Change asks that each rider raises and submits $1,500 by March 15th, 2009. If not, you will be offered to pay the difference on that date; otherwise, your spot may be rescinded and offered to a waitlisted rider.

What is the reasoning behind this policy?

If we hold a spot for an individual not meeting the fundraising requirements, we do so at the expense of those we are trying to help, and a rider that will fulfill the requirements.

We are more than happy to provide you all the support you will need to reach your goals! This is not intended to intimidate anyone from taking part, but the fundraising objectives are to be taken seriously.

In the case of your withdrawal, restriction from participation, or failure to meet the fundraising requirements for Riding to Break the Cycle, your fundraising balance will be considered a donation and will not be refunded.

NOTE - Riders may not share fundraised amounts to meet requirements. Each rider must reach their $3000 goal individually.

I understand and agree that if I do not raise $3,000 by the start of the trip, I cannot participate in Riding to Break the Cycle, and that if I do not raise $1,500 by March 15th, my spot may be offered to someone else.

B. PRE-RIDE PARTICIPATION

Pre-Ride Contribution

This is YOUR ride. We rely on the skills and energy of the unique people who come together for Riding to Break the Cycle, and we believe it is important for riders to feel ownership in its production. Every participant has an opportunity to help in organizing the tour and contribute to group fundraising and awareness.

This will translate into 2-4 hours a week maximum, unless explicitly agreed to be more in further discussions. We understand the responsibilities school and employment impose and will of course remain flexible. Your efforts here will have an enormous impact on the success of the tour.

Communication

It is very important that riders reply promptly to emails and phone calls from trip leaders or Global AFC representatives. Riders also commit to making every effort to take part in online meetings, online groups to share information, and other chances to communicate with the rider team.

Orientation

Riders commit to being in Vancouver a minimum of 3 days prior to the beginning of the tour for orientation, team building, bike and cycling safety, bike maintenance, and tour policy workshops. Rider expenses will not be covered for orientation days.

Equipment

Riders commit to securing a touring bike capable of withstanding the rigors of a 3000 kilometre tour. This bike must pass our inspection after shipping to Vancouver. We have an amazing bike shop partner that can assist with tune-ups, inspections, and/or purchasing a new bike at a large cost savings. Contact us before choosing your bike!

I have read and understand my responsibilities to contribute from 2-4 hours a week from the time of my acceptance, to ensure prompt and regular communication, to arrive in Vancouver 3 days prior to the tour start, and to secure an appropriate bicycle.

ESSAY QUESTIONS

The Global Agents for Change team would like to get to know you a bit better! We've included several short questions below to get a better feeling for who you are and why you wish to be involved with Riding to Break the Cycle.

Please include answers on separate sheets of paper - 300 words maximum per question.

1. Please tell us about your past volunteer experience and/or involvement with social causes. We do value those looking to get involved for the first time, so either way just share what drives you as a young person to explore global issues and help people you've never met before.
2. As an opportunity for immense personal growth and a collaborative experience, it is important that each rider realize they have an equal responsibility in making this the best experience possible. So:
 - a) What are your goals for this trip - what do you hope to learn and accomplish?
 - b) What personal strengths do you contribute to the team, and how will you strive to make this an unforgettable experience for all involved?
3. One of riders' primary responsibilities before the trip will be planning engagement opportunities for the team with communities and organizations along the way. Tell us something cool you would like to do to add to team learning opportunities, community engagement, fundraising and/or awareness activities on the road.
4. Why you have chosen the Pacific Coast Route?
